

Spiritual Gifts

Spiritual gifts are one way God equips the Church for the life and work He calls us to. These gifts range from essentials for the Christian life, to miraculous abilities, to roles and skills necessary for the ongoing ministry of the Church. While the gifts on this list vary in type, they all share one distinctive quality: they come from the Holy Spirit.

1

2

3

ESSENTIAL GIFTS

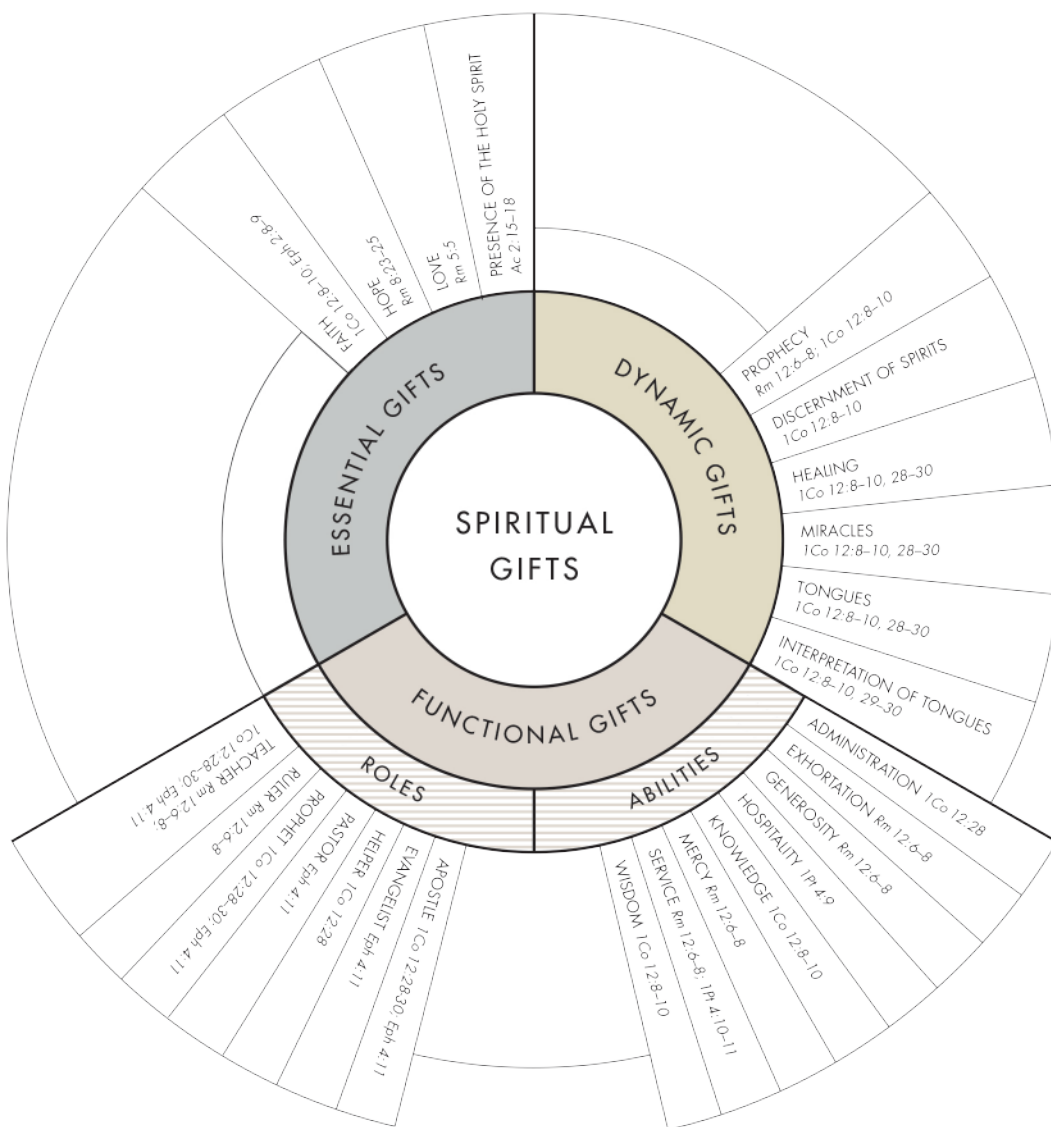

Qualities given to all believers everywhere that are necessary for living the Christian life

DYNAMIC GIFTS

Special abilities given by the Holy Spirit for the specific purpose of delivering or validating a message from God

FUNCTIONAL GIFTS

Roles and abilities needed for the ongoing structure and ministry of the Church on earth

Some Christian traditions believe that the miraculous and revelatory gifts ceased with the end of the apostolic age. Others hold they still are accessible today.